

FAIRWAYS
HOTEL

DUNDALK

OPENING THIS NOVEMBER

We look forward to welcoming you to the Fairways Hotel, your four-star location opening in the heart of Dundalk in November 2019. Whether you are in search of a hideaway in Ireland's Ancient East, a venue to celebrate life's milestones, or a meeting spot at the midpoint between two of our island's most thriving cities of Dublin and Belfast, find your way to the Fairways, and we will take care of the rest.

Originally opened in the 1960s, the former Fairways Hotel held a fond place in the heart of those who visited from near and far. Cherished memories of weddings, graduations, christenings, communions and family gatherings. Reminiscence of fun family holidays and romantic getaways. Recollections of inspiring conferences, and career landmarks.

Now rebuilt from the ground up, the Fairways Hotel Dundalk is set to make its return this winter when our doors open in November 2019. State-of-the-art technology and stylish finishes, yet that same cherished warmth, to be enjoyed by former and first-time guests alike. Come join us on our new beginnings and create your next memories in the new Fairways Hotel.

Be amongst our first guests, by contacting us to arrange your winter events or book an end-of-year getaway now at reservations@fairwayshotel.ie, +353 42 934 3910, find us on social #FairwaysMyWay or visit www.fairwayshotel.ie.

OUR LOCATION

To the north of the Fairways Hotel, you will find the bustling town centre of Dundalk, where you can explore artisan shops, local restaurants and the home of our Dundalk FC heroes, Oriel Park. Continuing along Louth's scenic coastal route, lies the Carlingford & Cooley Peninsula. Stunning vistas can be enjoyed from atop Slieve Foy, or waterside on a ferry ride across Carlingford Lough.

To the west of the Fairways Hotel, a five minute drive will bring you to the seafront village of Blackrock. There, you will find Dundalk Golf Club, set on an elevated site above the village with panoramic views across Dundalk Bay. This 18 Hole Par 72 championship course is the home of the PGA in Ireland. Not to mention, Blackrock village's picturesque shoreline promenade, world-renowned Wetlands, bird sanctuaries, and Blackrock Beach. A must for swimmers, families, and water sport enthusiasts.

REST & SLUMBER

Each of our 113 bedrooms and suites are individually appointed with the finest in interior design and comfort. All with a contemporary feel, containing all the facilities for today's traveller. Large comfortable bedrooms with high quality Respa mattresses will give the best night's sleep. Super high speed wifi and built-in Chromecast TV screens offer the highest levels of modern technology.

CONFERENCE & EVENTS

Situated at the midpoint between two of our island's most thriving cities, of Dublin and Belfast, The Blackrock Suite offers the perfect venue and setting. We are one of Ireland's few purpose-built meeting spaces with capacity for up to 900 conference attendees, and over 500 gala dinner guests. We also offer a number of boardrooms for small business meetings with access to high tech facilities.

Our philosophy is to create tailor-made experiences, as no two conferences, meetings or events are the same. Contact our experienced team, who will identify your best match from our world of options meetings@fairwayshotel.ie or call +353 42 934 3910.

With a history that dates to at least 3500 BC, Dundalk is not only a hotspot for development, it is also a landmark site of Ireland's Ancient East. From medieval churches and the nearby UNESCO site of Newgrange, to the Cooley Mountains and Carlingford Lough, our surroundings offer something for everyone from romantic weekenders to family adventurers.
